EDITOR'S SUMMARY

The channel is read closely: every 100 subscribers bring 41 views per post. You post rarely – 1.5 posts a week, which leaves the algorithm little to work with. Over recent weeks reach has risen by +69% against earlier posts.

SECTION 02 · CONTENT ANALYSIS

What performs best

Top posts by engagement and the weakest ones – so it is clear what to repeat and what to drop from rotation.

WHAT THE BEST POSTS HAVE IN COMMON

- 01 The main format is text (70% of posts in the period).
- 02 Average post length – 496 characters.
- 03 Reading peaks on Friday, around 16:00.
- 04 The gap between the best and the weakest posts is 8.2×: topic and delivery matter more than frequency.
- 05 The analysis covers 30 posts over the last 365 days.

01*Get to 4–5 posts a week

Right now it averages 1.5 publications a week. Telegram pushes a channel harder when the rhythm is even — sparse posting costs reach even with a loyal base.

IMPACT

+20–30% reach*02*Put the week's main post on Friday

This day historically gets the best response, peaking around 16:00. Moving key announcements into that window costs nothing.

IMPACT

+10–15% views*03*Buy traffic systematically

Without a flow of new subscribers reach falls even with good content: the base burns out. We bring targeted audience from topical channels and ads, with a report on cost per subscriber.

base growth
